If you would like a campus housing assignment for the 2016 - 2017 academic year:

1. Carefully review this entire agreement (this “agreement”)
2. Sign and date where indicated
3. Retain a copy for your files
4. Return the signed original to the Department of Housing and Dining (“H&D”) unless signed via ESTHER

- First year and new transfer students must have previously included a $100 room deposit when accepting their offer of admission. Your room deposit / reservation fee will be applied to your charges if you are assigned a room or applied to other charges if a room is not available.

- If you decide to live / move off campus after signing a housing agreement, you must give written notice to H&D and pay the appropriate termination fees. If notice of cancellation is provided (i) prior to April 30, 2016, termination fees will be $150, (ii) between April 30, 2016 and August 20, 2016, termination fees will be $750, (iii) after August 20, 2016, termination fees can be found in Section 4 per schedule.

- The deadline to sign this agreement (i) for first year and new transfer students is July 30, 2016, and (ii) for all other students is 4:00PM the day before room draw at their residential college (the “College”). All students meeting the deadline requirements will be eligible for campus housing assignments in accordance with the room draw procedures of the College. Rice reserves the right to change room assignments or draw results, when deemed necessary for making accommodations under the Americans with Disabilities Act. You may not enter room draw if you have not signed this Agreement. This Agreement may be signed electronically via ESTHER or printed, signed, and returned to H&D.

- If you are under the age of 18, your parent or legal guardian must also sign this Agreement. Fax: 713-348-5099 or Email: dm7@rice.edu.

- All students living in campus housing must be currently enrolled in an approved academic program at all times. If you are not enrolled full-time, you must gain approval from the Dean of Undergraduates and your College Master in order to continue living on-campus.

- All students living in campus housing must purchase the on campus meal plan.

- All students living in campus housing are encouraged to obtain insurance covering your personal property against losses, including those due to water, smoke, fire and theft. Consult with your parent / guardian about possible coverage under their homeowner’s policy. The University is not responsible for loss or damage to students’ personal property. It is your responsibility. (See Page 3, Section 1.h.)

The residential colleges will be CLOSED during winter recess; all students must vacate the buildings. (See Page 2)

By signing and returning this Agreement, you are agreeing that in the event you receive a campus housing assignment for the 2016 - 2017 academic year, this Agreement will become effective and you will become obligated to fully comply with all of its provisions. Once effective, this Agreement may only be terminated according to its provisions or with written approval of the Associate Vice President for Housing and Dining or its designated housing officer.

Student Signature and date

Parent / Guardian Signature and Date (If student is under 18)
1. CAMPUS HOUSING

(a) Charges

Campus housing charges provide for electricity, gas, water, sewer, heat, air conditioning, and Internet access. Basic cable is provided in the common rooms and all student room configurations. You may subscribe to premium channels by contacting Phonoscope Cable at 713-272-4600. Telecommunications charges are paid through the Cashier’s Office and premium cable television service charges are your responsibility and liability. Utilities may only be used for normal residential purposes and may not be wasted. Campus housing charges are uniform across the campus even though the different architectural designs of the Colleges create variations in size, shape and capacity. The assignment of rooms / suites within each College is the responsibility of its College government, and any re-assignments must be approved by the College. The College Masters are the final authority regarding room / suite assignments.

(b) Occupancy

Campus housing assignments will be available for occupancy (i) for authorized Orientation Week coordinators and advisors on Tuesday, August 9, 2016, (ii) for new matriculants on Sunday, August 14, 2016, and (iii) for all other students on Saturday, August 20, 2016 at 1:00 PM. Requests for exceptions, such as formal participation in O-Week as part of a Rice student organization, must be requested in writing by Friday, July 29, 2016 and need to be approved by H&D and First Year Programming. Moving in early or moving out late at any time within the terms of this agreement will result in a $200 fine per day fee.

When you move into your campus housing, you should inspect it thoroughly and notify your Senior Operations Manager in H&D in writing within 7 days of any existing damage or deficiencies.

To conserve energy and conduct maintenance, all undergraduate housing will be closed during the winter recess (Thursday, December 15, 2016 through Saturday, January 7, 2017). Students must move out of housing by 12 PM (noon) on Thursday December 15, 2016 and cannot return to housing until 12 PM (noon) Saturday, January 7, 2017. Students who live in residential housing and need to remain nearby during this period must make other living arrangements during winter recess. You are not required to remove your personal belongings during winter recess, but you remain responsible for the safety and security of all personal belongings (as per section h).

All non-graduating students must move out by Friday, May 5, 2017 at 12PM (noon). Requests for exceptions, such as participation in commencement, must be requested in writing by Friday, April 21, 2017 and need to be approved by H&D and your college master. Graduating seniors must move out by 4:00 PM on Monday, May 15, 2017.

Campus housing may only be occupied by assigned students and used for normal residential purposes. Visitors may stay overnight for up to 7 days per academic year, provided that none of your roommates / suitemates object and that your College Master approves. You shall be responsible and liable for the conduct of your visitors during their stay.

(c) Appropriate Behavior

The Colleges are small communities within the larger Rice community and provide a unique environment for academic, athletic and cultural experiences. Living, dining and learning together over the course of an entire academic year requires a strong commitment to self-governance, tolerance, mutual respect, and shared responsibility. You are responsible for conducting yourself and maintaining your residence in such a manner so as not to create a hazard or nuisance or to otherwise infringe upon the rights, health, safety or security of others or their property. You are also responsible for fully complying with all applicable laws, Rice policies and procedures, and College rules and regulations in effect during the academic year.
(d) Prohibited Items

Pets
Pets are not permitted in campus housing. Certified assistance animals, fish in tanks of 10 gallons or less, and flora (excluding fungi) are the only exceptions.

Appliances
Space heaters, window units, microwaves that are not part of the university approved micro fridge units, refrigerators with a combined refrigerator and freezer space over 3.6 Cu. Ft., and all cooking / heating appliances including coffee makers of any kind are not permitted in campus housing. Refrigerators and Micro fridge units are limited to 1 per person. The Colleges have kitchenets available for your use.

Candles and other incendiaries
No smoke or vapors producing devices are allowed. Candles, incense, flammables and flammable liquids, and any type of incendiaries are prohibited. Non-flame producing candles are allowed. The City of Houston Fire Code in the Colleges prohibits open flame. Smoking is prohibited in or on all college buildings and within 25 feet of any door, window, or intake. This includes all public and private spaces as well as rooftops, patios, and balconies. See Rice University Smoking Policy #839 for designated smoking areas.

Alterations/Improvements
You are not permitted to make material alterations / improvements of any kind to your campus housing. Includes, but not limited to, painting, use of chalk, and penetrating walls, doors, floors, and ceilings.

Safety
No lab research / industrial equipment requiring special ventilation, exhaust, or shielding is permitted. See safety.rice.edu for more information. Tampering with the limits on your room’s thermostat is prohibited. If there is any problem with your heating / cooling system you should submit a request for service. Violation(s) of the aforementioned rules regarding energy related devices or controls could result in an energy-use surcharge of up to $200 per item or incident. All firearms and dangerous weapons are prohibited on campus in accordance with University policy No. 835. Rice University officials and H&D reserve the right to remove prohibited items without notice or liability.

(e) Storage and Bicycles

Your personal belongings are not to be stored, even temporarily, in the hallways, stairwells, landings, balconies, laundry rooms, parking lots, and other common areas of the Colleges. Do not hang anything on fire sprinkler pipes, devices or any other life safety device. Egresses cannot be blocked at any time for any reason. This includes bicycles, refrigerators, furniture, clothing, boxes and trash. Bicycles on campus are to be stored in your room or secured to a bicycle rack. H&D reserves the right to remove improperly stored items without notice or liability. All bicycles must be registered with the Rice University Police Department. Bicycles may not be left on campus for the summer. Bicycles that are abandoned or are unregistered with the Rice University Police Department will be removed and relegated to Campus Police and / or H&D office. Bicycles will be removed from College bike racks if they are not licensed with RUPD during the Winter break and immediately after move-out in May or if deemed abandoned. College areas must be kept clean and maintained. No storage of paint is allowed.

(f) Access and Security

Check to be sure the locks and latches on your doors and windows are in good working order. Notify H&D immediately if any repairs are necessary or if your key or card is lost or stolen. The safety and security of you and your roommates / suitemates will require new keys and lock cores if your key is lost or stolen, and you will be charged $100 per lock core. If you are in a cardkey College and lose your card you will need to replace the card at the Rice University Police Department. You are not permitted to duplicate your room key or change your room locks. You must lock the door to your room at all times, even if you are inside or only leaving for a short time. Do not open the door for someone if you have any concerns regarding their identity or intent. Common area doors with controlled access via key / card help reduce unauthorized entries and threats to persons and property. Do not prop doors open. Propping doors is a security and fire risk. Propping doors and disabling any security devices will result in fines to individuals and / or Colleges. You must exercise caution in allowing others to use your key / card and when leaving your key / card in public areas. No security measure is fail-safe and Rice disclaims any express or implied warranties of security. Mandatory fire drills will be conducted during the first 2 weeks of each semester. Failure to evacuate or enter any time a building is in alarm will result in a fine and a possible referral to Judicial.
(g) Furniture

Each room comes with standard furnishings. These are assigned to your room. H&D prohibits students from moving furniture out of their room without prior approval. A moving and storage fee will be charged to your account for furniture removal and storage when H&D storage space is available. H&D reserves the right to remove furniture that is considered to be a safety hazard. Furniture should not be arranged as such it prevent easy access and egress in to the room or space.

(h) Liability and Insurance

You are responsible and liable for, and shall hold Rice harmless from, any and all injury and damage to persons and property caused, directly or indirectly, by your intentional or negligent acts or omissions. With respect to damage to your room, suite, hall, floor, wing or College, your responsibility and liability may be joint and several with your roommates, suitemates, hall mates, floor mates or other College members, as deemed appropriate under the circumstances by Rice, H&D and / or your College government. YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE AND LIABLE FOR INSURING YOUR PERSONAL BELONGINGS, INCLUDING LOSSES DUE TO FIRE, SMOKE, WATER AND THEFT. RICE SHALL NOT BE HELD RESPONSIBLE OR LIABLE FOR ANY LOSS OR DAMAGE OF YOUR PERSONAL BELONGINGS, AND DOES NOT PROVIDE ANY INSURANCE COVERAGE FOR YOUR BENEFIT.

(i) Right of Entry

Your occupancy and use of campus housing is subject to entry at any time by Rice personnel on official business, your College Masters, and other authorized College members. Such access will generally be for purposes of removing trash, cleaning the bathrooms, conducting maintenance and repairs, and ensuring compliance with the provisions of this Agreement. Any observed violations of this Agreement, Rice policies, or law may be reported to H&D. Trashcans may be temporarily placed in the hall for pick-up. If you have any special housekeeping needs during the year, please contact H&D to make appropriate arrangements, and pay related costs. Maintenance concerns and repairs, including insect or pest control needs, must be submitted promptly to H&D work@rice.edu to expedite service, prevent further damage and limit related costs. When possible, efforts will be made to accommodate your sleep / study schedule when entering your room; however, Rice reserves the right to conduct inspections, maintenance, and repairs at any time. A request or consent by one member of a room / suite shall be deemed a request or consent, as the case may be, by all members of the room / suite.

(j) Violations

If Rice, H&D, the College Masters and / or your College government determines that you have violated any of the provisions of this Agreement or that you represent a risk or nuisance to persons or property, you may be assessed charges, required to move off campus and / or subject to other disciplinary action (see the Code of Student Conduct).
2. DINING SERVICES

(a) Meals

Students may dine in any of the residential dining commons except when the Colleges have a private function. Rice Student ID card is required to access the service areas. Meals are non-transferable and may not be shared with others. All residents are required to purchase the on-campus meal plan.

(b) Tetras

“Tetra” Points are funds that can be spent at multiple campus eateries using your ID card. These Points are available for your use as long as you are a currently registered undergraduate student at Rice University. Tetra points may be purchased by visiting the Meal Plan Administrator at the Housing & Dining Office or by filling out an online form at dining.rice.edu. Upon your graduation, any unused Tetra Points will expire. Tetra points are non-refundable and non-transferable. Students who study abroad for a semester may use their Tetra points when they return.

(c) Service

Meal plan service at the Colleges will be available for breakfast, lunch and dinner Monday through Friday, breakfast and lunch on Saturday, and lunch and dinner on Sunday. Specific hours of operation as well as the list, of which kitchens will be operating, will be posted at: dining.rice.edu. Meal plan service will begin (i) for new matriculants with lunch on Sunday, August 14, 2016, and (ii) for all other students with lunch on Sunday, August 21, 2016. Meal plan service will end (i) for graduating students with breakfast on Saturday, May 13, 2017, and (ii) for all other students with dinner on Wednesday, May 3, 2017. Non-graduating students may use tetra points for meal service during the week of graduation. Meal plan service will not be provided during (i) Thanksgiving recess (No Dinner Wednesday, November 23, 2016 through Lunch Sunday, November 27, 2016), (ii) Winter recess (No meal service on Thursday, December 15, 2016, through Lunch on Sunday, January 8, 2017); (iii) Spring Break (No Dinner Friday, March 10, 2017 through Lunch Sunday, March 19, 2017). All College dishes, glasses and cutlery must remain in the commons dining area and are property of H&D. You may be assessed charges for any removal of dinnerware from your room. Disposables are available for take out, but is not All You Care To Eat.

Key Dates

2. August 21, 2016 - Returning students meal service begins
5. Sunday, January 8, 2017 – Spring Meal Service Begins
7. May 3, 2017– Meal plan ends for non-graduating students
8. May 13, 2017 – Meal plan ends for graduating students

3. PAYMENTS

(a) Campus Housing and Meal Plan Charges

Campus housing and meal plan charges are payable by the semester per the statement issued by the Cashier’s Office. All payments should be made to your account at the Cashier’s Office and are subject to additional late charges if not paid on time.

(b) Other Charges

Your account at the Cashier’s Office will be assessed for any charges you incur in connection with this Agreement. You are responsible for payment within 30 days of invoicing.
4. EARLY TERMINATION; MOVE OUT PROCEDURES; LIABILITY AFTER TERMINATION

(a) Early Termination Prior to August 20, 2016.

If you decide to live / move off campus after signing a housing agreement, you must give written notice to H&D and pay the appropriate termination fees. If notice of cancellation is provided (i) prior to April 30, 2016, termination fees will be $150, (ii) between April 30, 2016 and August 20, 2016; termination fees will be $750.

(b) Early Termination After August 20, 2016.

(i) Termination Due to a Qualifying Event: Qualifying events are reasons a student may cancel and be released from this agreement without being subject to paying for the full value of the housing agreement. Students who cancel due to the following qualifying events will be charged the daily rate through their date of check out; they will not be charged any fees for early termination. Cancellations for these reasons require approved supporting documentation.
   a. Medical Withdrawal from the University
   b. University study abroad program (30 day notice required)
   c. Mid-Year Graduation (30 day notice required)
   d. Student becomes a parent (30 day notice required)
   e. Irreconcilable difference with roommate(s) (30 day notice required plus written recommendation from College Master and written approval from Residential Colleges Management Advisory Committee “RCMAC”)

(ii) Termination Due to a Non-Qualifying Event: Non-qualifying events are cancellations for any reason other than qualifying events in Section (4.b.i.). Non-Qualifying event may include rustication or suspension. Students who cancel this housing agreement for a non-qualifying event will be charged the daily rate through their date of check out plus a $750 re-letting fee if Fall semester housing is cancelled prior to September 2, 2016 or if Spring semester housing is cancelled prior January 22, 2017. Students who cancel a housing agreement for a non-qualifying event after September 4, 2016 (Fall Semester) or January 20, 2017 (Spring Semester) will be charged as per the current Rice tuition and fee schedule (found on the Academic Calendar and referenced below)

*All refund dates are based on the date when housing is vacated.

(iii) If you develop special circumstances (i.e., financial hardship, family affairs), you may appeal to RCMAC to determine your right to terminate this Agreement, including any related requirements.

(iv) If your campus housing is rendered uninhabitable by fire, flood or other disaster, H&D will use its best efforts to provide you with other campus housing arrangements. If alternative campus housing arrangements are not available or H&D is unable to accommodate, this Agreement will terminate effective as of the date of such disaster.

(c) Move Out Procedures

Upon any termination of this Agreement, you shall promptly vacate your campus housing, leaving all Rice property in the same condition as when received, reasonable wear and tear is expected. Procedures for moving out include securing an appointment for proper checkout or turning in a signed express checkout form along with your room key. Failure to complete a proper checkout will result in both a $200 fine and any relevant damage charges. You shall be held responsible and liable for all expenses related to (i) the repair or replacement of damaged or lost Rice property, (ii) the disposal of any abandoned furniture, refrigerators, decor, clothing, projects, books, or other personal belongings, and (iii) the cleanup of any excessive trash or debris. Your responsibility and liability shall be joint and several with any roommates / suitmates. If any disposal or cleanup charges are assessed with respect to your room / suite, each roommate / suitemate will be subject to a $25 minimum charge. All campus housing must be vacated on your move-out date as noted in section 4.b. Rice shall not be held responsible or liable for any personal belongings left in campus housing and may remove them without notice or liability.

Return your room and / or suite key at the end of your stay to your College Coordinator or to the Housing and Dining office.

(d) Liability After Termination

Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, upon any termination of this Agreement you shall remain responsible and liable for all obligations accruing prior to its termination and under all provisions that expressly or by their nature extend beyond and survive its termination.

5. GENERAL

(a) No Assignment, Sublet, Amendment, or Waiver

This Agreement (i) may not be assigned or sublet, in whole or in part, (ii) may not be amended or modified, by course of conduct or otherwise, and (iii) may not be waived, in whole or in part, by delay in enforcement or otherwise, except, in each instance, with written approval of the Associate Vice President for Housing and Dining or its designated chief housing officer.

(b) Enforceability

This Agreement shall be interpreted and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of Texas, without regard to its conflicts and choice of law principles. By signing this Agreement you confirm that (i) you have read and fully understand this Agreement, (ii) you intend this Agreement to be legally binding upon and enforceable against you and your family members, estate, heirs and legal representatives, (iii) you intend this Agreement to inure to the benefit of Rice, and (iv) confirm that you are at least 18 years of age, fully competent, and entering into this Agreement of your own free will and judgment. If you are under the age of 18, your parent or legal guardian must also sign this Agreement.
CAMPUS HOUSING AGREEMENT
ACADEMIC YEAR 2016 – 2017

Exhibit A
Schedule of Fines

Housing and Dining inspects all of the residential colleges on a regular basis. Depending on the nature of the fine the charges are assessed either directly to the individual responsible or if there is doubt in culpability the fine is assessed to the college. It is the responsibility of the college government to investigate and pay the fine on behalf of the student/s or formally report individual culpability to housing and dining for reassessment of the standing charges. Multiple fines and charges may apply to a single incident.

If you wish to appeal a fine, appeal online at http://campushousing.rice.edu. You will be scheduled an appointment for you to appeal formally to RCMAC (Residential Colleges Management Advisory Committee). Your appeal will be heard and a decision will be rendered.
